SENATOR KREMER: Mr. Chairman, I only want to say if we are going to deal with the Committee amendments, I feel that since this is not only controversial but also highly important that the Committee amendments ought to be read by the Clerk. Give all of us a chance to follow them through very carefully and I think we will profit by it. I so move that the Committee amendments be read carefully and audibly so that we can all follow.

PRESIDENT: The chair will order the Committee amendments read, please, at this time. The clerk will read the amendments.

CLERK: Mr. President, the Committee amendments are as follows: Read.

PRESIDENT: Senator Carpenter, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Well, I would move we dispense the reading of the amendment. Let the chairman of the Committee explain it.

PRESIDENT: They just...Senator Carpenter, the request was made of the chair in order to have the amendments read.

SENATOR CARPENTER: OK...

PRESIDENT: (Inaudible) Thank you, sir. The clerk will proceed.
